

KARIM MUSSI WINES

Los Poetas Libertad Blend

Region

The Uco Valley is one of Argentina's most important wine regions. Approximately 45 miles long and 22 miles wide, the valley follows the course of the Tunuyan River. The area has seen significant growth and investment over the last 20 years and is now home to some of the country's top producers. Benefitting from the cooler climate and excellent soil offered by higher altitude vineyards, the region produces spectacular Malbec with a distinctive floral nose. It's also responsible for some of Mendoza's finest Chardonnay and Torrontes.

Producer

A firm favourite with our customers, and internationally recognised as one of the most talented winemakers in Argentina today, Karim Mussi continues to go from strength to strength, with leading wine critics falling over themselves to heap praise on these expressive & distinctive wines. Alongside Altocedro, the Alandes project represents absolute freedom, a 'laissez-faire' winemaking philosophy that is in an extensive territory without borders.

Viticulture

Traditional management. Double Guyot training system. Manual harvesting in small boxes of 15 kg.

Vinification

Entire berry fermentation takes place in small concrete vats over 7 days at 25°C, with four pump-overs a day. The wine undergoes malolactic fermentation and natural cold stabilisation with no oak contact.

Tasting Note

Well balanced with a very approachable fruit-driven style. Ripe summer fruit with warming spice and clean structured finish.

Food Matching

Charcuterie, terrines, turkey, roast pork, pulled pork.
